PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS

If you subscribe to Logique et Analyse, you will receive an invoice together with or following the delivery of the issue(s).

All payments should be effected to us without additional costs. This is possible in (only) two ways (please do not use cheques!):

-for payments within Europe (Eurozone): please use the payment form (making use of standardized BIC / IBAN codes) which is part of the invoice

-for payments from outside Europe: please follow the paypal procedure, which can be summarized as follows

(further information on: www.paypal.com):

- 1) visit the paypal website www.paypal.com
- 2) sign up (for free) and add a credit card
- 3) choose 'Personal' and then 'Send money'
- 4) add the amount due and the email address bestel@aspeditions.be
- 5) continue and finalize the transaction.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR SUBSCRIBERS

We are pleased to inform you that subscription rates have not been increased for the present Volume. Annual subscription (Volume 55, 4 issues): € 35 (excl. shipping cost, incl. VAT).

The rates will be reconsidered for the next Volume due to appear in 2013 (Volume 56, issues 221–224), taking into account our intention to enhance the electronic services offered by the supporting website. Subscribers will be informed in due time about possible changes in the subscription rates.

We would like to ask you to contact us in case you were subscribed to last year's Volume (Volume 54) and did not submit a renewal for the present Volume.

We invite you to contact us directly with all your questions about the journal and about your subscription. Please mail us at the following address: info@aspeditions.be.
